

Iain Steven, Technical Director, CDC Scotland Ltd

DecomNorth, Lunch & Learn, 28th September

Image source: <http://engagecustomer.com/switching-smartphone-providers-to-be-made-easier/>

Ian Phillips

Chief Executive

Image source: <http://www.ogic.co.uk/about-ogic/the-ogic-team/>

Are bigger or older jack-ups the most innovative solution to meeting Decom needs?

A drilling MODU isn't necessary for
P&A

Specs and certification

Reactivation costs

NEWS

At $500 Million A Pop, It's An Oil Gamble That Has No Precedent

by Bloomberg | David Wethe | Tuesday, September 20, 2016

Tweet Share 1.1K in Share 468 G+ Share 4 reddit this! Email Print

In a far corner of the Caribbean Sea, one of those idyllic spots touched most days by little more than a fisherman chasing blue marlin, billions of dollars worth of the world's finest oil

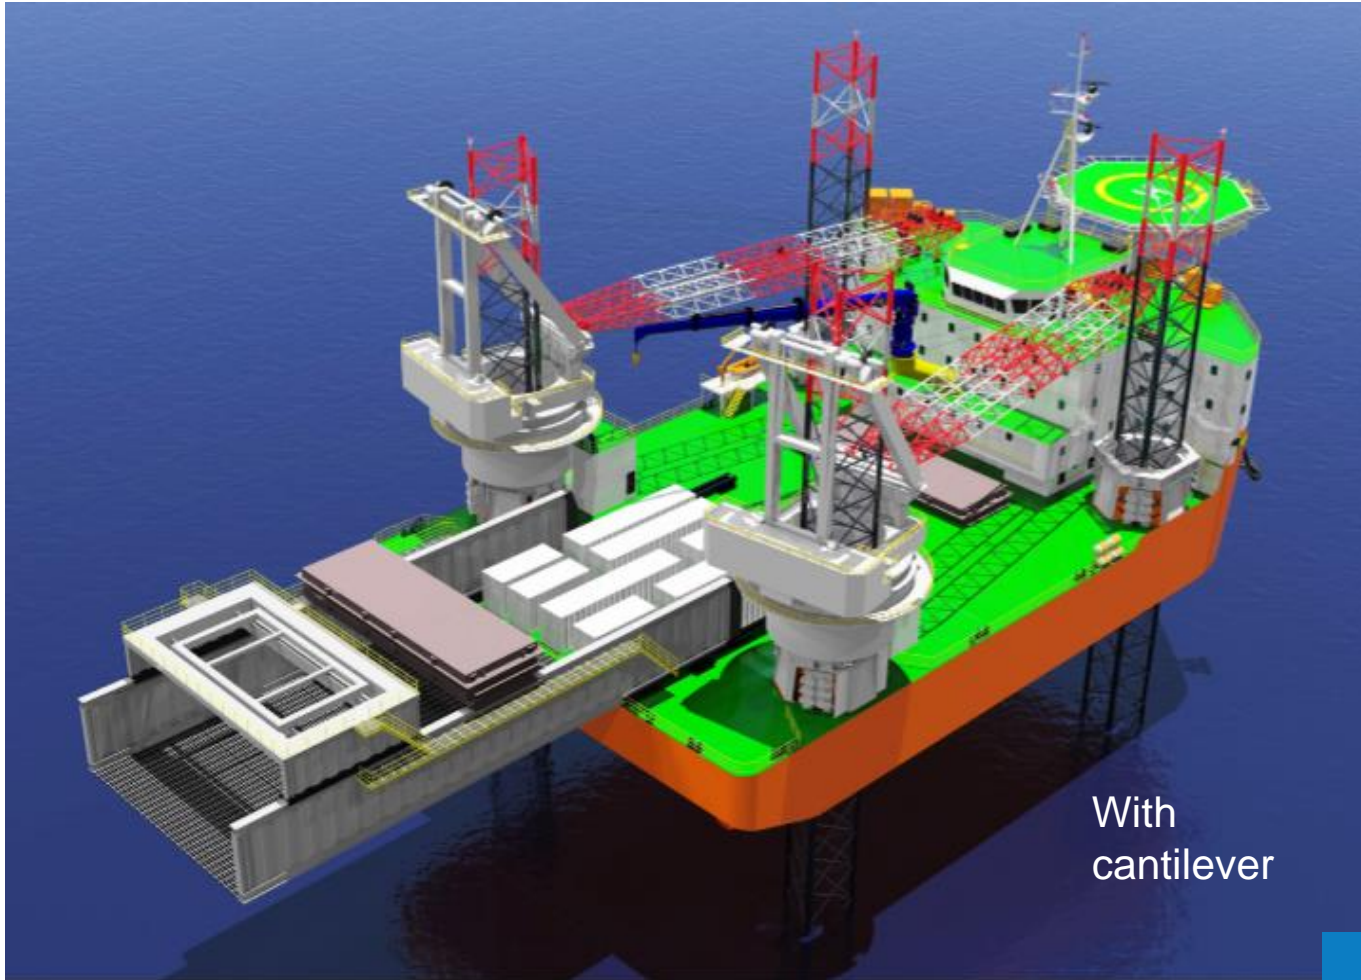

(Bloomberg) -- In a far corner of the Caribbean Sea, one of those idyllic spots touched

Source: www.rigzone.com

DNS L&L June 2016

Finalist, World Oil Awards, 2016. Category: Best Well Intervention

With
cantilever

DNS L&L June 2016

CDC Chameleon Self Elevating Support Vessel (SESV) Main Deck arrangement – Archer MDR package

Archer

MDR to be supplied Electrical power from vessel. 690V 5050Hz. 3.6 MW Max operating 1MW Essential services.

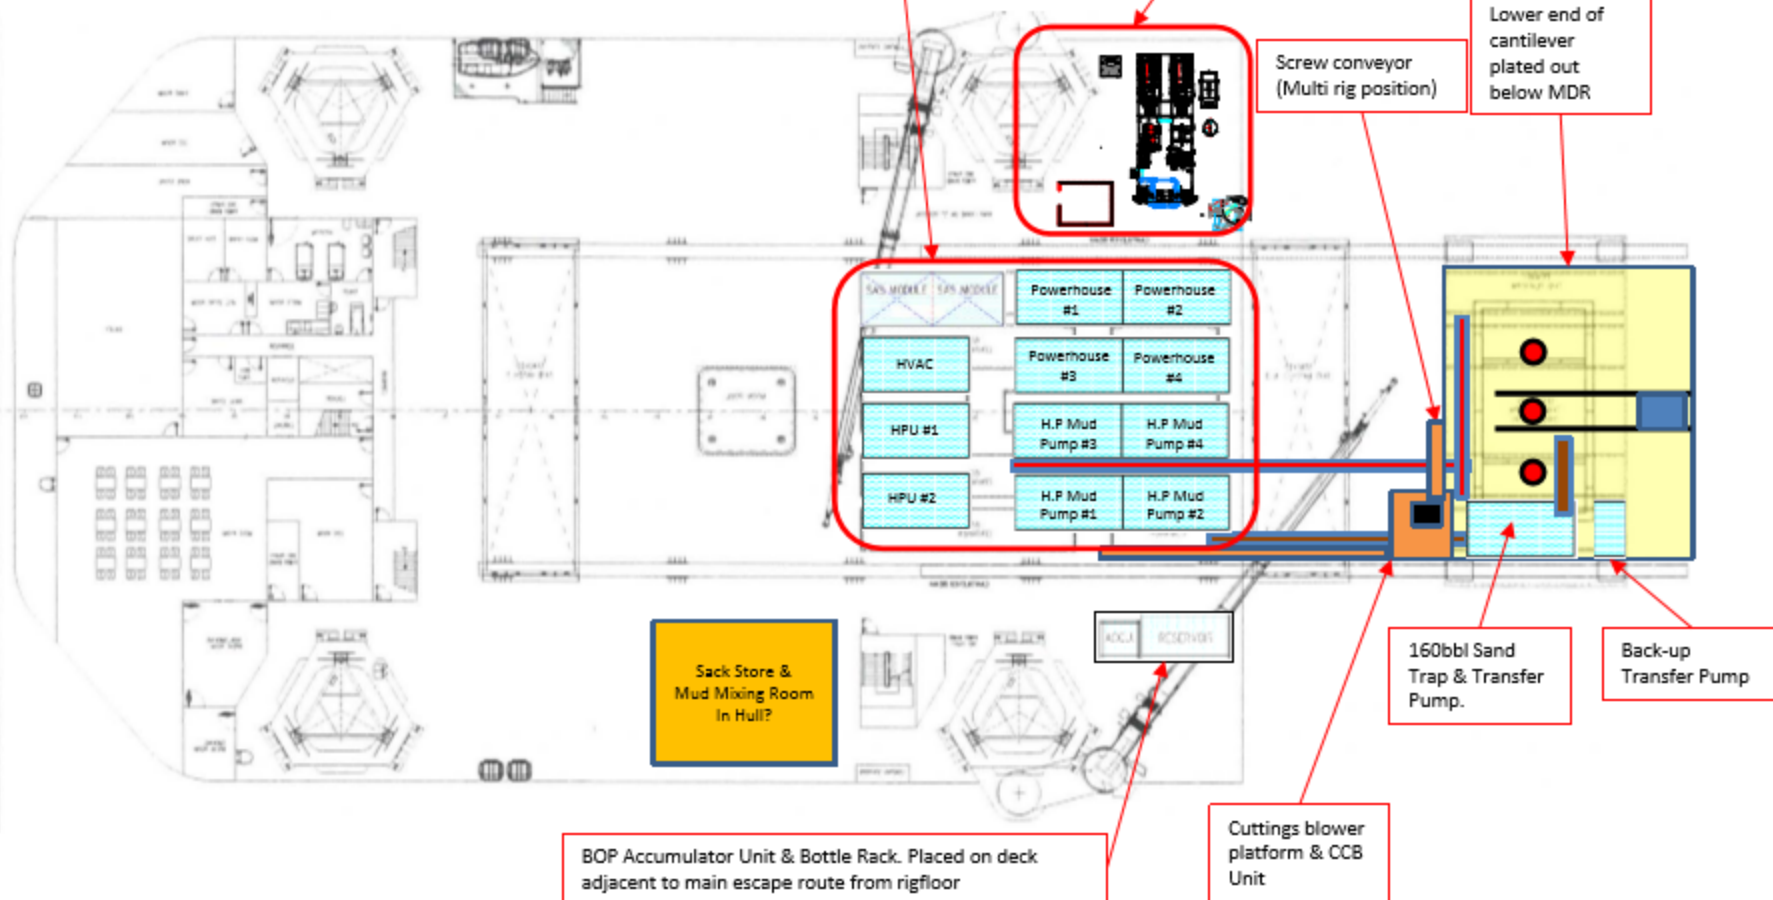

Utilities, Seawater, Potable water, firewater, telecoms, compressed air all supplied by vessel

MDR Power Generation package (PGS) and HP Pump package to be located on aft main deck.

Third Party Supply
Diesel Cement Unit c/w
Control Cabin
Liquid Dosing Unit
HPU
Essential services Fuel Tank
Surge Tank

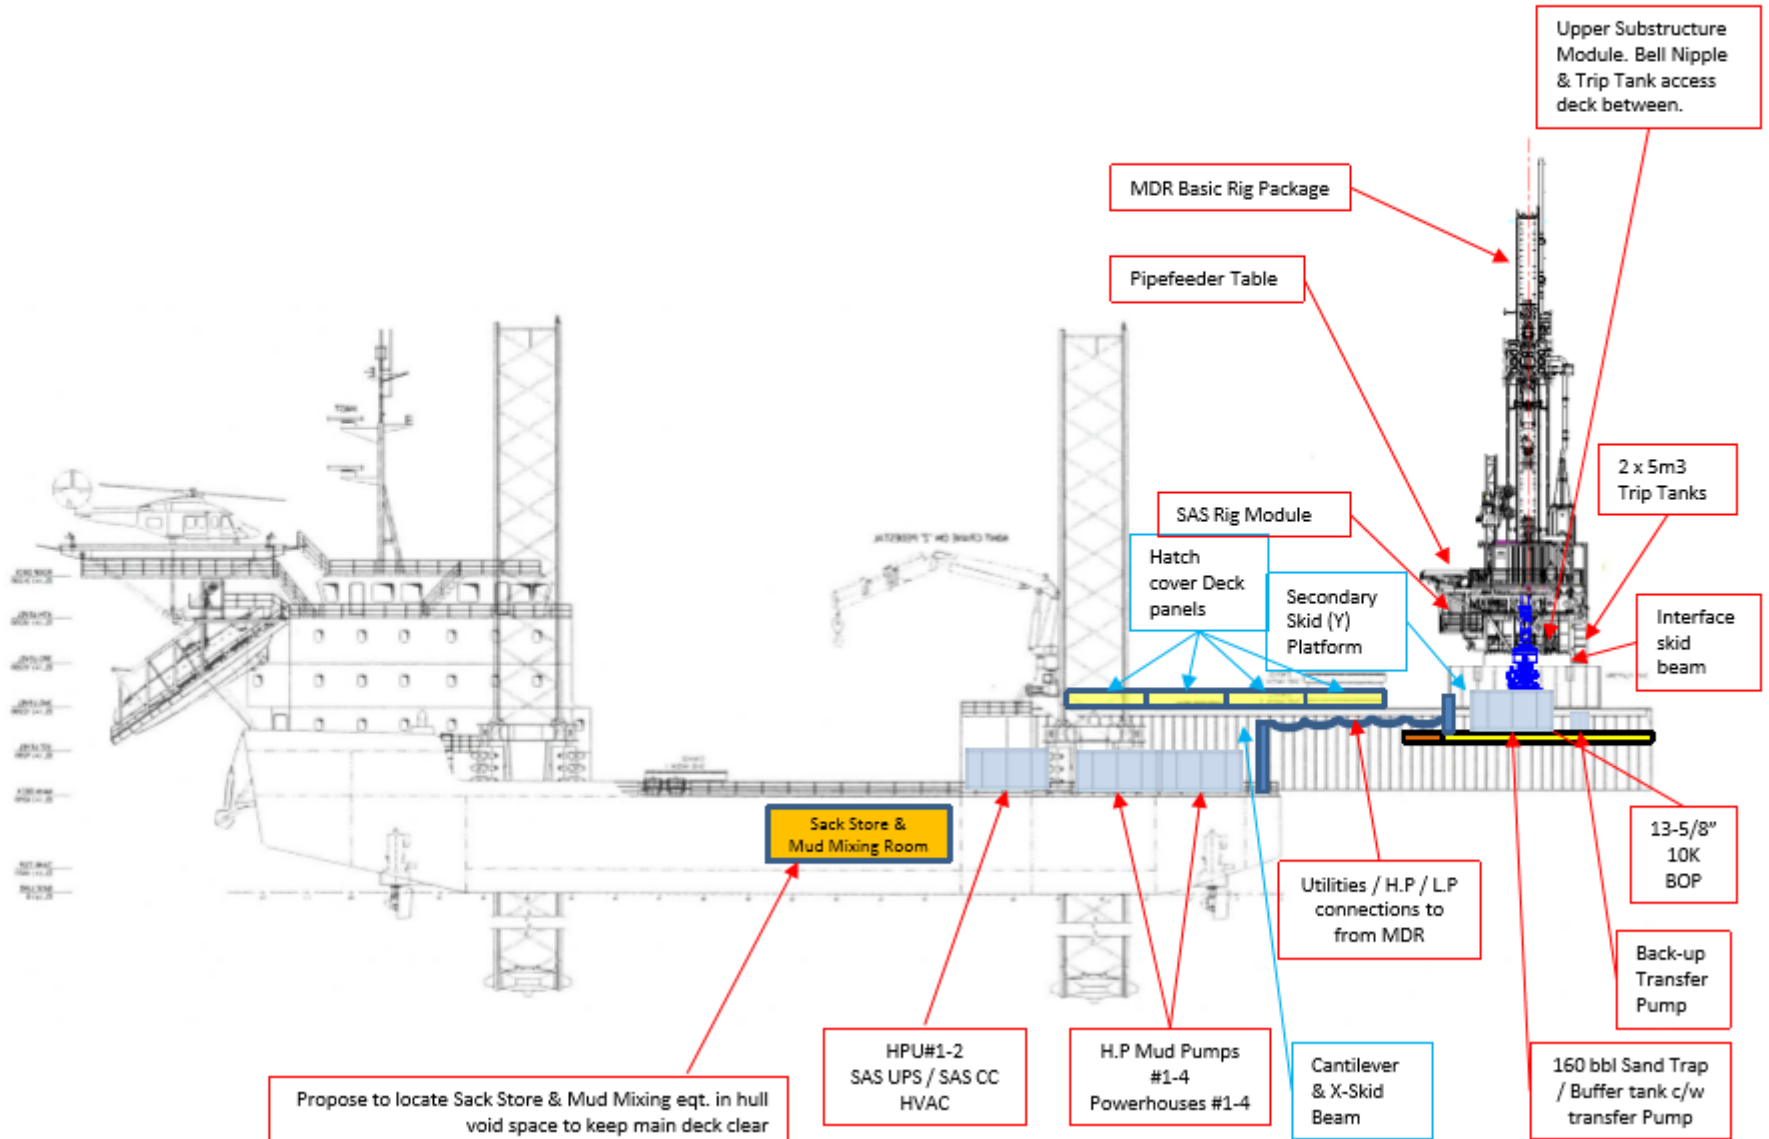

Screw conveyor
(Multi rig position)

Lower end of cantilever
plated out below MDR

CDC Chameleon Self Elevating Support Vessel Sectional Elevation

Archer

CDC Scotland Ltd

Iain Steven,
Marine Engineer

John Davies,
Electrical Engineer

Ian Brown,
Naval Architect